

“Stories of Wisdom and Humor with Philip Gulley”

November 2 and 3, 2019

Otterbein United Methodist Church

20 East Clay St.,
Lancaster PA 17602

The “voice of small-town American life,” Philip Gulley is a Quaker pastor and speaker, renowned for his storytelling and “folk theology.”

Gulley, from Danville, IN, is the author of 22 books, including the Harmony series recounting life in an eccentric Quaker community and the best-selling Porch Talk essays.

“The tales Philip Gulley unveils are tender and humorous ... filled with sudden, unexpected, lump-in-the-throat poignancy.”--Paul Harvey

Sat. Nov 2: 7:00 p.m.—Stories in the Fellowship Hall

Sun. Nov 3: 9:30 a.m.—Sunday Worship featuring Philip Gulley

Sun. Nov. 3: 10:45 a.m.— Storytelling and book signing with Philip Gulley (a selection of books will be available for purchase) followed by an optional catered buffet. Reservations for the buffet must be made by Oct. 25, $15 per person. All other events are free. Buffet reservations can be made online at <https://otterbeinlancpa.net> and clicking on the GIVING tab or calling the church office at 717-394-3755.